

NO CONTACT ORDERS
MODIFICATION / TERMINATION

You should enroll in and complete several of the "Safety Planning" classes before filing a petition to modify/terminate the no contact order.

THE COURT REQUIRES THE FOLLOWING:

1. Go to the Court Services/ Misdemeanor Probation office to pick up a petition to modify/terminate a no contact order:

Court Services (Probation Office)
746 East Lander Street, 236-7083 or 236-7085

2. Take the petition and identification to the following place to have signed and notarized (you must show ID):

Becky Rodriguez, Victim Witness Coordinator (City Coordinator) 234-6515
911 North 7th Street (Pocatello Police Department) or City Prosecutor's office

Or

Tamela Manhart, Victim Witness Coordinator (County and Chubbuck Coordinator) 236-7280
624 East Center (Courthouse) 1st floor Prosecutors office room 100 or 2nd floor Prosecutors office room 204

3. Take the signed and notarized petition to the Judges Deputy Clerk to be set for a hearing.
4. Call Family Services Alliance at 232-0742 to schedule an appointment for an intake to start "Safety Planning" (a free 8 week course).
Family Services Alliance
355 South Arthur
Pocatello ID 83204
232-0742 (during business hours)
24-hour Crisis Line 251-4357
5. The defendant may be asked to complete the DV Effects on Children class if there are minor children in the home. The defendant can register for the class with Kim Talbot, Domestic Violence Court Coordinator at 208-236-7421. Participation in the DV Effects on Children class does not guarantee the dismissal of a no contact order.

You should enroll in and complete several of the "Safety Planning" classes before filing a petition to modify and/or terminate a no contact order. In some cases, you do not have to complete all classes prior to a modification or dismissal. Attending the 8 week course does not guarantee the dismissal of a no contact order.
