Reinstatement of an expired permit shall not occur if the plan review was performed using a previously adopted code.  2. Occupancy Review: cases where plan review and inspection services are performed to establish a certificate of occupancy, and where there is no construction work being performed.   A single permit that qualifies for splitting the stated work between two separate permits shall be assessed separate fees. A separate permit will be required to be obtained once work is ready to commence on the portion of work that was split off from the original permit. The full fee amount of the original permit shall not be subject for refund. No permit shall be split if the portion of work to be split has already begun and constitutes an unsafe condition in an unfinished state.
