

EXHIBIT A

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF PROBATION ORDER UNDER IDAHO CODE 20-520

Any juvenile offender placed on probation and his/her parents/guardians shall abide by the following terms and conditions. The probation officer will explain the requirements of Exhibit A and will require the juvenile and his/her parents/guardians to sign and date Exhibit A. All juvenile offenders are required to obey the following rules of probation unless waived in writing:

1. The parents/guardians shall assure compliance with, and the juvenile shall:
  - A. Maintain contact with your probation officer and obtain the officer's written consent to move, leave Bannock County, or leave the state of Idaho. If your address changes, these rules apply to the new residence as well.
  - B. Avoid any contact with individuals not approved of by your probation officer and your parent(s)/guardian(s).
  - C. Follow all of the rules at home and school.
  - D. Abide by the following curfew: Sunday-Thursday: 10:00 PM; Friday and Saturday: 11:30 PM (unless told differently).
  - E. Attend school everyday unless you have a physician's excuse. Truancies are reported to your probation officer and may constitute a new juvenile offense. Your probation officer will have access to your report cards and attendance records.
  - F. Obey the law and not use or possess any illegal narcotics, paraphernalia, or prescription medication.
  - G. Not use or possess alcohol, any form of tobacco, pornography, sexually explicit or violent materials, including music, or any weapons, including BB guns, pocket knives, slingshots, and razor blades. You may not be at any place outside your home where any of these items are being used.
  - H. Have a parent or legal guardian with you at all times when you are in retail stores, and never enter any stores that have trespassed you. If you do enter such stores, you may be charged with trespassing. You may not enter any store property where an offense occurred.
  - I. Obtain your probation officer's consent to apply for a driver's license or take drivers training. If you already have a license, it may be suspended by your probation officer or the Court, if you do not follow the rules of probation.
  - J. Not go to any school or school event where you are not registered without permission of your probation officer. If you are found on such school grounds, you may be charged with trespassing.
  - K. Pay Juvenile Justice $25.00 for each month you are on probation. Payments are due on the last day of the month.
  - L. Not spend any nights away from home unless accompanied by parent or guardian
2. Restitution: If the court orders any restitution paid to the juvenile offender's victim and the juvenile and/or the parents/guardians object to the amount ordered, they may request a Restitution Hearing. The juvenile and/or the parents/guardians must provide the court written notice of their objection within twenty (20) days of the restitution order. A failure to do so makes the restitution order final. Parents/guardians are legally responsible for paying any restitution that the juvenile fails to pay. Restitution shall be paid to: Bannock County Courthouse, Bonds & Fines, 624 E. Center, Room 220, Pocatello, Idaho, 83201. If the court terminates probation or the juvenile or the parents/guardians fail to obey the restitution order, the court may convert the restitution order to a civil judgment for the unpaid balance against the juvenile and the parents/guardians who are designated in the restitution order.
3. Home Detention: The probation officer may require the juvenile offender to remain at home at all times unless he/she is at school and/or work. The probation officer may use an electronic monitor while the juvenile is on home detention. A daily fee for the monitor is charged.
4. Community Service: A juvenile offender must perform twenty (20) hours of community service for each offense. The probation officer has discretion to suspend hours as he/she deems appropriate. If in school, the juvenile shall perform twenty (20) hours per month. If not in school, the juvenile shall perform forty (40) hours per month. The juvenile and the parents/guardians shall pay $.60 per hour for workmen's compensation coverage. The fee shall be paid to: Bannock County Courthouse, Bonds & Fines, 624 E. Center, Room 220, Pocatello, Idaho, 83201. If the fee is not paid, Bannock County may obtain a civil judgment against the juvenile and the parents/guardians.
5. Classes: A juvenile offender and the parents/guardians shall attend, participate in, and complete all ordered classes and programs at the scheduled date and time.
6. Law Violations: A juvenile offender and the parents/guardians shall not encourage, participate in, or commit any act that constitutes a violation of the laws of the United States, Idaho, or its cities. A juvenile and/or the parents/guardians who violate the law may be charged criminally for the violation. The probation officer may also file a probation violation and seeking contempt sanctions against the juvenile and/or the juvenile's parents.

7. Warrantless Home Checks and Searches: The juvenile and parents or guardians are ordered by the Court to maintain a crime-free home and property. The home and property must be free from illegal items including: drugs, prohibited intoxicating substances, weapons, pornography, stolen property, drug paraphernalia and gang paraphernalia. All of the home, outbuildings, property, vehicles, school lockers, and bags may be searched without a warrant. A juvenile offender and the parents/guardians shall submit to periodic unannounced and warrantless home checks and searches by probation officers at any time and without probable cause. During such home checks, a law enforcement officer may assist the probation officer for the probation officer's safety. No unapproved juveniles or adults may spend the night in the home. Probation officers, along with a law enforcement officer, may, at their discretion, search the juvenile's and the parents/guardians home, secured rooms, safes, grounds, outbuildings, vehicles, and/or school locker without obtaining a search warrant. The juvenile and the parents/guardians specifically waive their constitutional right to be free from such searches.
8. Detention Costs: A juvenile offender and the parents/guardians shall pay $100.00 for each day the juvenile is in detention. Probation officers have discretion to decrease or waive this fee if the juvenile and the parents/guardians are complying with probation.
9. Probation Officer's Discretion: When necessary a probation officer may order the juvenile offender and/or the parents/guardians to complete any of the following:
  - A. Individual, group, or family counseling; B. Alcohol/drug evaluations and counseling; C. Random drug/alcohol testing within 24 hours of the probation officer's request; D. Victim Offender Mediation; E. Parent Orientation/Parent Project/Strengthening Families; F. Additional community service (juvenile only).

Additional Requirements for Juvenile Offenders Who Violate Probation

1. Serve detention time, home detention, or be placed on the electronic monitor and pay a fee for each day the juvenile is on the monitor.
2. Perform twenty (20) additional hours of community service for each violation.
3. Attend any additional classes that the probation officer may deem appropriate.
4. Remain on probation for additional time or be monitored at a higher probation level.
5. Receive a Juvenile Violation Report for criminal contempt or for any additional juvenile and/or misdemeanor charges.

Additional Requirements for Parents/Guardians Who Violate This or Any Court Order

If the parents/guardians of the juvenile allow, encourage, participate in, or do not report to the probation officer all violations of this Order, the parents/guardians may be required to attend an Order to Show Cause hearing before the Judge. At the Order to Show Cause hearing, the State has the burden to prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the parents/guardians have violated the terms of Probation. Possible sanctions for a contempt conviction include: a $1,000.00 fine; up to five (5) days in jail for each violation; and /or additional classes or to be charged with the crime of contempt. See Idaho Code §§ 20-520; 18-1801.

By signing below, I acknowledge that I have received a copy of Exhibit A, that I have read Exhibit A, that I understand all terms of probation, and that I will obey all probationary requirements.
